LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 385 dated 6th Feb: 1903 from the Dy Commissioner Hassan District.

During the inspection of the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple at Malekal Tumpati, Arsikere Taluk, in Decr. 1896, it was brought to the notice of the late Muzrai Secretary (R. B. A.
Srinivasachari) that a theft ^{had been} committed in the temple about the year 1891 and that the value.

of the stolen articles had not been recovered till then; and a complaint being from one Dasappa, Shanbhogue of Arai Kere was also presented in the matter. From personal enquiries made by that Officer, it was ascertained that ²Weg ²Vooc and ²Do ²So ²Do ²Do had been stolen ^{while they} ~~which~~ were in the ^{charge} ~~possession~~ of Archak Narayaniengar, who in his personal deposition made ^{before} ~~by~~ that Officer agreed ^{mentioned above} that the articles ^{mentioned above} were in his ^{charge} ~~possession~~ when they were stolen. It was also brought to notice that the Archak had after the occurrence of the theft got his office transferred to the name of his son Kesava Bhatta. Whereupon, a Rubbani no. 168 of 15-4-1898 was issued to the D. Commr. wherein orders to the foll. effect ^{were} ~~was~~ conveyed:—

(1) the transfer of the Archakship held by Narayana, Jyengar to his son Kesava Bhatta was ordered to be cancelled because of the presumably fraudulent character of the transfer which had taken place just after a theft in the temple during Narayaniengar's tenure of the Archakship—

(2) the value of the properties lost amounting to Rs 300 & odd was ordered to be recovered from Arhak Narayaniengar & that until the recovery of the amount Narayaniengar should be placed under suspension, one Kustha Shetty son of Narasimhaachar being temporarily appointed to the vacancy.

Besides, one Lakshmanamma a Baravarddan Arhak of the temple represented in person and also pet^d stating that she had appointed ~~also~~ Narayaniengar as her Gurnasta on the condition of his paying her something for her maintenance & that as he did not abide by the condition, he may be removed

(There are three Arhaks in the temple - viz, 1 Narasimhaachar 2, Lakshmanamma and 3, Kesava Shetty son of Narayaniengar —) removed from the Gumatashy and ^{that} one Janardamengar (ಜಾನ್‌ದಾಮೇಗಾರ್) under whose protection she was, appointed as her Gumatashy instead Narayaniengar also deposed before the Murpar Secretary that the statement and complaint of Lakshamma was true and that he had not paid her anything. for ^{previous} 4 years ~~previous~~ for which he said he had also received a lawyer's notice. It was also complained that this Narayaniengar was misusing the Kanik's &c received from the devotees and he himself deposed that he was more than 52 years old & being sick for upwards of 4 years was unable to climb up the hillock to do Puja —

Whereupon in Pubkari
No 164 dated 1-4-97 orders to the following effect were conveyed:—

There is another shrine dedicated to Sri Venkateswaramma on a hillock near the temple at Arikere - The two shrines are one & the same for purp of Puja &c

Narayaniengar who after transferring his own right to his son Kesava Bhatta, continued to do Puja in the temple as Gumaster of Venkateswaramma, should be removed from the Gumastaship & ~~that~~ ^{and} instead one Janardhaniengar grandson of Venkateswaramma should be permanently appointed in the room of the said Narayaniengar Subsequently, the Account of Hassan submitted^{*} 25 15 11 ?

2 bills for Rs 37-11-11 & Rs 33-4-0 on account of the pay of the Archaks & the Paditara charges of

His Dkt No 429 877^h Decr 1898

of the temple. On the reference to the bill for Rs 33-4, on account of the pay of the Archakas, it was observed that the bill had been drawn in the names of (1) Archak Kesava Bhattacharya and (2) Kesava Bhattacharya doing Archak duty on behalf of Venkatarakshmanappa. Thereupon it was stated in this office dt no 743 of 16-12-98 that though the bill was for arrears due to Narayanaiah & his son Kesava Bhattacharya for the period prior to their removal from the Archakship under orders conveyed in the Public Notice cited above, yet the disbursement of the amount could not be sanctioned until Narayanaiah paid down the money due from him on account of the value of the temple stolen properties

With reference to the bill for Rs ^{35 15 11} 37-11-11 being the undischarged arrears of Paditara, it was payable to Subhak Narasimhaiah who had also deposed before the late Mysore Secretary that the Paditara & his pay had not been disbursed to him, whereupon in the Subkari no. 466 of 14th April 1897 it was stated that the arrears should be paid to him and as no action had been taken towards the final adjustment of Narasimhaiah's claims, it was remarked that it was "objectionable". The

The Dycommr. was requested to report upon the foll^g

1) What steps had been taken towards giving effect to the orders of Govt. conveyed in the Pubkaries above ref^d to, and who were ~~now~~ doing duty in the temple as Archaks.

2) What was the amount of pay and Pabkara due to Archak Narasimhaiah.

// In the Amildar's Enq memo dated 9th May 1897 he stated that the affairs of the temple had fallen into confusion in consequence of party factions amongst the Dharmadarsis & Archaks thereupon it was presumed by the late Muslim Secy to the who had personally acquainted himself with the affairs, that all the confusion he was due to Dharmadarsi Malakallaiya whom he considered ~~undesirable~~ desirable to remove from the Committee of Dharmadarsi. The Dy Comm. was requested to suggest some one else for app. as Dharmadarsi in the place of Malakallaiya.

With reference to the foregoing, the Dy Comm. in his letter no. 385 of 6th Feb. 1903 reports that the orders conveyed in the Rubkari referred to above were given effect to. Present Archaks are ⁽¹⁾ Krishna Dhatte in place of Narayaniengar suspended, ⁽²⁾ Narasimhaiah and ⁽³⁾ Janardhanengar Gumarast of Kutabakrishnamma -

With regard to the fraudulent nature of the transfer of Archakship by Narayaninegar to his son Kesava Bhatta as observed in this Office Purbhavi no 164, the Dy Commr. states that Kesava Bhatta's name stands in the ~~Baruwar~~ Baruwar Register from the year 1889 though he did not actually join duty till the year 1893. The ~~dept~~ took place in 1891 and the Dy Commr. thinks that the transfer could not in any way have been fraudulent. He reports that Kesava Bhatta has now tendered the amount of the lost articles on behalf of his father Narayanaengar that the same has been deposited in the Govt. Savings Bank to the credit of the temple.

He further reports that Krishna Bhatta was temporarily appointed till the amount of the lost properties was recovered from Narayanaengar and he therefore requests sanction to the appointment of Kesava Bhatta son of Achak Narayanaengar to look after the duties of his father.

With regard to the two bills in question, the DC's report that Rs 35-15-11 only is due to Achak Narasimhaiah for Padatana allowances - A ~~bill~~ ^{bill} ~~for~~ Rs ~~33~~ 33-4-0 being the pay due

Due to Kesava Bhatta for the period he performed Puja before Krishna Bhaktas temporary appointment is also submitted for sanction The amount was in arrears because it was ordered to be withheld till the payment of the value of the stolen articles.

In regard to the last question, the Dy Commr. reports that Dharmadass Malekallaige has since tendered his resignation & that the Dy Commr. will recommend the name of another person soon -

The points now for orders are: —

1) Sanctioning the appointment of Kesava Bhatta in the room of his father Narayanengar as Archak of the temple as ~~the~~ he has paid up the amount of the lost articles -

2) Countersigning & transmitting to the Comptroller and Audit the two bills -

3) Acceptance of the resignation of Dharmakarsai Mahakallaiyya -

Mysore Department

Sir,

With reference to your

Docket No: $\frac{743}{19-95}$ Dated $\frac{16}{17}$ December 1898

Calling for a detailed report on the matter of Archaga ship to the Temple of Sri Venkateswara
- swami Temple at Annapurna Timpoti, Ankur's Taluk, I have the honor to state that the orders orders conveyed in Order Nos N^o C 164 and C 168 Dated the 1st/₄ and 15th April 1897 respectively and given effect to. Krishnakshasta was also ordered therein temporarily appointed in place of Achik Narayanaiah on 3rd June 1897.

But with regard to the question that the transfer of Achikship by Narayanaiah to his son Kesava Bhatta was fraudulent, I beg to state that Kesava Bhatta name stands in the Bara ward Register from the year 1889 though he did not actually join duty till the year 1893. The theft of temple jewels in question took place in the year 1891 and I think therefore that the times for could not have been in any way fraudulent. Keshava -Bhalla was however relieved of his duty by Krishnabhatta as per orders conveyed in the

Narayana was placed under suspension and he was not permitted to look after the Bank's relationship of Bankers
-Lakshmana, Janardana Gupta
~~of~~ son of the latter having been permanently appointed to the place. So that, the three brothers who are looking after the work were Krishnabhatta in place; Narayana Gupta and Janardana Gupta, the last last looking after the balance of Venkata Lakshmana - -

2- With regard to the other question, viz, the amount of pay and Padithana allowance due to Achik Nemesimbarana, the Amildar reports that nothing is due to him as pay but a sum of Rs 35. 15. 11. only is due to him as Padithana allowance.
This has been duly receipted by the Amildar and a bill for the amount is herewith submitted for countersignature and kind transmission to the Comptroller for audit.

3- I have also submitted - another bill for - Rs 33-4-3 - being the pay due to him as Amildar for - the period he is employed pay, before Krishna Bhatta's temporary appointment? This amount was ordered to be withheld till the payment of the value of the lost property was made by Narayan & Dnyan Krishna Bhatta has now tendered the amount on behalf of his father Narayanaiah, and the same has been deposited in the Government Savings Bank to the credit of the Temple. The pay bill may, therefore, be countersigned and transmitted to the Comptroller for audit. Further, the appointment of Krishna Bhatta was only temporary and was intended to last till the recovery of the amount from Narayanaiah.

I request you therefore to sanction the appointment of Krishna Bhatta son of Archik Narayanaiah to

father.

4 - Dharmadassee Maitri-Kallaig has since tendered his resignation and I shall soon recommend the name of another man to his place.

5 - Vernacular papers ending with the Amildar's report No: 32 Dated 27th November 1902, are submitted herewith for reference and kind return.

I have the honor to be

During the inspection of the Sri Venkataramunyaswami temple at Malekal Turupate in the Arachere Taluk, in December 1896, it was brought to the notice of
a theft had been committed in the temple about the year 1891, and that certain articles which were in the charge of Archak Narayaniswami had been stolen. It was also ^{then} brought to his notice

to the name of his son Kerava Rhatta. Thereupon, the Muzrai Secretary directed (i) that the transfer of the Archakship held by Narayaneengar to his son

Kerava Rhatta, should be cancelled because of the presumably fraudulent

which had taken place just after the theft in the temple during Narayaneengar's tenure of ~~Office~~ Archakship; and (ii) that the value of the properties lost amounting to Rs 300, should be recovered from Archak Narayamengar and that until the recovery of the amount, Narayamengar should be placed under suspension, one Krishna Bhatta son of Narasimhaiah being temporarily appointed to the vacancy. ^{Further,} ~~Besides,~~ Narayamengar who after transferring his own right to his son Kesava Bhatta, was continuing to do Puja in the temple as Gumaster (substitute) of one Venkata Lakshamma, another Baravardhan

Baravardden Archak was also directed to be removed from the Gumastasy ~~and~~, one Janardhanicgar grandson of Venkata Lakshman being permanently appointed in the room of the said Narayanicgar

2. Subsequently, on the 7th Decr. 1898, the Dy Commr. for sanction submitted two bills - one for Rs ³⁵⁻¹⁵⁻¹¹ ~~35-15-11~~ and another for Rs 33-4-0 on account of the pay of the Archaks and the Paditara charges of the temple.
With reference to this, it was observed that though the bill for Rs 33-4-0 was for arrears due to Narayanengar and his son Kesava Nhattha for the period prior to their removal from the Archakship, yet the disbursement of the amount ^{could} ~~was~~ not ^{be} sanctioned ~~unpaid~~ until Narayanengar paid down the money due from him on account of the value of the stolen properties of the temple. With reference to the other bill for Rs 35-15-11 it was observed that it was for the undischarged arrears of Paditara payable to Archak Narasimhalu; and the two bills were returned unsanctioned.

3. With reference to above, to the foregoing, the Dy Comm's reports, with regard to the fraudulent nature of the transfer of Achakshup by Narayana to his son Kerava Shetta as observed in para 1 supra that Kerava Shetta's name stands in the Baravard Register from the year 1889

though he did not actually join duty till the year 1893.
The theft having taken place in 1891, the Dy Comm thinks that the transfer could not in any way have been fraudulent.

He further reports that Kesava Bhatta has now tendered the amount of the lost articles on behalf of his father Narayaniengar & that the same has been deposited in the Govt. Savings Bank to the credit of the temple, and recommends the appointment of Kesava Bhatta son of Achak Narayaniengar to look after the duties of his father in the room of Krishna Bhatta who was temporarily appointed till the amount of the lost properties was recovered.

The Govt. are pleased to sanction the Dycomm's recommendation

-X- i) Rs 35-15-11 due to Achak Narasimhaiah for Paditana allowance.

ii) Rs 33-4-0 being the pay due to Kerava Shatta for the period he performed Pujā before Kustwa Shatta's temporary appointment.

two bills aggregating Rs Rs 69-3-11 are also sanctioned and forwarded to the Compt. for audit and return to the Dy Commr. for payment.
The charge being met from the savings at the credit of the Institution -
